Theory Registration Is Still Open

Begins the week of September 14, 2026 and runs until April 26, 2027. Contact the front desk for details.

Performance & Growth

Students can work toward performance opportunities, stronger practice habits and a bigger musical path.

Exams & Credits

Families interested in exams, high school credits or university preparation should speak with the studio or teacher.

2. Recording Opportunities

Students can book recording opportunities to capture what they are playing right now.

A Keepsake of Progress

Recording is a meaningful way to capture a student's growth and celebrate what they are currently learning.

A Great Gift Idea

Student recordings can also make a special Christmas gift idea for family and friends.

To get started, book a Production Lesson online.

3. Bands

Bands are coming. Stay tuned for more information about upcoming band opportunities this year.

Keep an eye on your email for announcements about bands, performance opportunities, workshops, camps and other programs.

Bottom line: Going away for March Break? Tell us by February 15 and we will take care of the rest.

After February 15, the regular cancellation policy applies. You can still cancel a March Break lesson if needed using your one flexible cancellation every 60 days, provided you are eligible at that time.

We are offering these Flex options because we want to give families as much flexibility as possible while still giving our teachers and front desk enough notice to plan schedules and make unused lesson times available to other students.

8. PA Days, School Breaks & Other Holidays

Elite Studios does not necessarily follow the school calendar.

School Closed Does Not Always Mean Studio Closed

PA Days, school breaks, school closures and other school holidays do not automatically mean Elite Studios is closed.

Check Your Portal

Unless Elite Studios is specifically listed as closed, your regularly scheduled lesson is running.

If You See a Lesson, You Have a Lesson

Your student portal is always the go-to place to confirm whether you have a lesson that day.
